JOE GANS MAKES OFFER TO DANE

Says Nolan Does Not Stand in Way—He Will Make Good Terms.

(Special to The Herald.)
Ogden, Jan. 4.—Joe Gans, the dusky lightweight champion of the world, who recently defeated "Kid" Herman, of Chicago, by knocking him out in the eighth round at Tonopah, passed through Ogden on the Overland limited yesterday afternoon on his way back to Chicago.

"I have had many harder and many easier battles than my go with Hermann," he said, as he leaned back on the easy cushion seat of the Pullman car. "Of course, it turned out that he was easy picking for me, but you can never tell about that until after it is all over. I expect that my next fight will be with Britt. I have already signed articles. I don't know whether Britt will sign or not."

"I am now going back to join my theatrical company. I will stay with them for another six weeks and then, if Britt comes to town, I will be back here to train for my little argument with him. You can say for me," he said, growing earnest, "that I am anxious to meet Nelson, but I do not care to get the sporting world all riled up again unless the Dane means business. I don't care whether Nolan manages him or whether someone else takes care of him part of the match; all I want is something near as square a deal as I gave him when we fought at Goldfield. As I have said before, Nelson has got to give me the long end of the purse, which is 15 per cent. This is ten per cent better than he did with me. If he still thinks he is my superior, here is a proposition that I will put up to him, and then let the sporting public decide which one of us wants to be the more fair. Now I understand they will hang up a $30,000 purse for us. Let them agree that I get $10,000 and I will fight Nelson, winner to take all of the remaining $20,000. If he wants to be a fair sport, let him accept either one of these two propositions. Of course I wouldn't think of matching with Nelson until I have disposed of Britt. If I am successful in that match, then Nelson will be my preference."

"Now to get back to the Tonopah fight, Tex Rickard was the heaviest winner and played the largest hand. He bet $5,000 to $1,500 and landed on the winning side. I made a few thousands myself," Gans said, modestly, "by betting that I would put Herman out in less than ten rounds."

"What is there to all this talk about your retiring?" Gans was asked.
"Well, you see," he said, "I want to retire from the ring, but my friends won't let me, so I guess I will have to keep at the business for some time yet."

Gans looked in the best of condition and showed no signs of his battle with Herman on New Year's day.

HORSE RACING IN COURT.

Delmar Jockey Club Wins Its Case in Supreme Court.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 4.—Chief Justice Gantt, of the supreme court, today granted a writ of error to the supreme court of the United States in the out-of-court suit of the state against the Delmar Jockey club. Application for the writ was made by Attorney General Bond, the club's attorney, on the ground that the club was being deprived of its property without due process of law, in violation of the federal constitution.

The Missouri supreme court a month ago declared the club's charter revoked because it had only racing meets, and had held no agricultural fair, as required by the charter.

A match has been arranged for Jan. 15 which promises to create a great amount of interest. In this race Brown's horse has been matched against Stockings, owned by George Standford, for a side bet of $500.

JEFF BALKS ON ARTICLES.

Los Angeles, Jan. 4.—James J. Jeffries refuses to stand by the articles signed by Billy Delaney in San Francisco to fight with Ed Sullivan at Rivoli, for a purse of $20,000, to be split 60 and 40 per cent.

At 8 o'clock tonight Jeffries, in an interview, said he had heard from Delaney and absolutely refused to fight under the conditions named.

"If I fight Scum or any other man, my share must be $20,000, win or lose or draw. I don't care what the other man gets, but I must have $20,000."

"I will not stand by anything done in San Francisco unless I get the purse named. As far as I am concerned the matter is all off for the present."

JIM FLYNN WINS FROM SULLIVAN

Twenty Terrific Rounds Fought Before Pacific Athletic Club at Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Jan. 4.—Jim Flynn of Pueblo won a decision from Jack (Twin) Sullivan of Boston before the Pacific Athletic club here tonight after twenty as terrific rounds as have ever been seen in a local prize ring. No such vicious fighting by men of their weight has been seen here before. Flynn won the decision on his aggressiveness and terrible punching, and on his ability to take punishment.

Sullivan's cleverness saved him many times throughout the fight, and he undoubtedly outpointed Flynn. The referee was doubtless influenced in his decision by Sullivan's alleged unfair fighting in several rounds. Time and again Sullivan was seen to strike Flynn with his elbow and butt him with his head, and the crowd believed it was intentional, and rose to their feet in protest many times, calling to the referee to award the fight to Flynn on a foul. Neither man was knocked down during the fight, but both took a world of punishment. When the score sounded at the end of the twentieth round both men were covered with gore, which flowed in streams from the nose and mouth.

"150,000 CLUB" PROPOSED.

B. S. Young Has Scheme for a Novel Organization.

The initial step has been taken by the United Republicans of Utah for the establishment in Salt Lake City of a "150,000 club," the purpose of the club to be to boost for a population of 150,000 by 1910. The scheme, as defined by B. S. Young, state chairman of the United Republicans, is to be the formation of business men into a club whose one slogan will be "Boost."

A "150,000 club," established along lines similar to the 150,000 clubs of Seattle, Tacoma and other north Pacific cities, it is argued, would be of great value to the city by reason that its one purpose would be to boost for 150,000 population by 1910.

"I have written letters to the various commercial associations," said Mr. Young, "asking them to take the matter up. The real estate association has already replied, stating that the matter will be submitted to its members at the next meeting, Jan. 5."

PHOTO-THERAPY

Nature's Own Method of Curing The Sick.

Two things Nature never did: administer a dose of medicine or perform a surgical operation. If these were Nature's methods of curing the sick, there would be little question as to how to proceed in the treatment of human ailments. If the limb of a tree be ill, what is Nature's way of healing it? From the ground, through the same channels, in the same usual manner, the natural nourishment is taken. The limb, not altogether dead, exerts itself in its own behalf until, in the natural course of time, the ailing limb is well.

Humanity has departed so far from the ways of nature, however, that it has to be shown the true method again, just as though the true system were a brand new one. The physicians of the Salt Lake Medical Institute, patiently and unceasingly, have given their time to working out the problem of natural healing. They have found it in Photo-therapy and they offer this method to the people in lieu of the knife and drugs. If you are ill; if you have tried other doctors and their remedies; if you have been told that you will have to undergo an operation; if you want to get well, see these doctors and do not delay about it, for every day of neglect exaggerates your condition that much.

Call and have a talk about Photo-therapy. Consultation and examination are as free as the air you breathe, and, furthermore, they will not accept your case if it is incurable. Their fees are much less than those of physicians using drugs, and their percentage of cures is much higher. For the benefit of the ladies, they have a lady in attendance.

Office hours: 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Evenings, 7 to 8:30, and Sundays, 9 a. m. to 12 noon.
